HERE IS GOOD FORTUNE FOR THOSE WHO ARE SEEKING STIRRING

Just to make it interesting for about ten days we have decided to inaugurate a sale that will enable you to buy new, stylish footwear at prices that will appeal to you as bargains. Here's a chance to invest in High-grade Shoes at little cost, and no one should allow the opportunity to pass without investigating. We start the ball rolling in this fashion:

Remember, these are new goods—late styles—and have just been received. Besides being the shoes you ought to buy, just think of the price you are asked to pay. The goods were placed on sale THS MORNING, and the sale will continue during the time specified.

Mr. J. E. Boniden of Tuckahoe, President of the Germantown Fair Company, was here yesterday.

AMERICAN statesmonship, backed by AMERICAN statementship, backed by the rare good sense of the American people, has made the United Stotes, though the youngest of Nations, the richest, the most advanced and the most powerful in the world's history; and yet there are a lot of cranks and fanetics in Boston and elsewhere who profess to be afraid to trust American statesmanship in solving the Philippine problem. Mr. ATKINSON and his followers ought to be bored for "hol-low-horn," like other cattle.

A DISPATCH from London says the report of the Select Committee of the House of Lords, appointed to consider the accession declaration of the sov-ereign in regard to the transubstantiaereign in regard to the transubstantia-tion, finds that the language can be advantageously modified without di-minishing its efficacy as security for the maintenance of the Protestant suc-cession. The form of declaration sug-gested by the committee does not con-tain phrases relative to idedarty, etc., which are so objectionable to Roman Catholics.
